

Super-Duper Summer Issue

May 15, 2020 (RALEIGH, NC) -- It's the most sought-after accolade from the Triangle to the Coast and Raleigh Metro Magazine is planning a deluxe size special summer issue to list the winners in the magazine's 2010 MetroBravo Awards, the "best of" reader's poll that attracts thousands of ballots every year since launched in 2000.

"This year we have seen a big increase in reader ballots", says Katie Reeves, the magazine's vice-president for sales and marketing. "We decided to showcase the winners in a bigger and better format – and create more pages for our quarterly Southern Style special section, our quarterly medical report and our annual review of the real estate market in the region."

Planned at 124 pages, the Metro Summer special edition will cover the months of June, July and August in one super issue perfect for reading all season long", says Karla Appleby, regional and national sales manager for the magazine.

According to Katie Reeves, "our quarterly Southern Style special section includes unique homes and design projects; fashion coverage; and gardening in the region. Metro's medical reports are the only in-depth coverage of medical news in the state."

Metro Magazine was founded in 1999 and serves the Triangle region to the NC coast.
